

11th November 2021

Dear Parent/Carers,

We are delighted to announce that we have been shortlisted in four categories at this years' Bolton News Education Awards!

Primary School pupil of the year – Korey Dobson
Teaching Assistant of the year – Karolina Poplawska
Teaching Assistant of the year – Sandra Obertelli
Support worker of the year – Jemma Harper

We are so proud of this recognition and would like to invite all our children and their families to attend the virtual live event via Zoom, which takes place on Wednesday 17th November at 7:00pm. To attend simply click on the link below, which is open to everyone.

Your support as parents/carers means a great deal to us and it would be lovely to share this event with you.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Kind regards,

Mrs Whittaker
Head of School
